10. Forward Looking Statements

All of the statements included in this website, other than historical facts, are forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, growth, earning performance and financial and operating measures. As a general matter, forward-looking statements are those focused upon anticipated events or trends, expectations, and beliefs relating to matters that are not historical in nature. The words "could," "anticipate," "preliminary," "expect," "believe," "estimate," "intend," "plan," "will," "foresee," "project," "forecast," or the negative thereof or variations thereon, and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements.

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides a "safe harbor" for these forward-looking statements. In order to comply with the terms of the safe harbor, the Company notes that forward-looking statements are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors relating to the Company's operations and business environment, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond the control of the Company. These known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those matters expressed in, anticipated by or implied by such forward-looking statements.

These risks, uncertainties and other factors include, but are not limited to: exposure to economic downturns and market cycles; intense competition, particularly the pricing of products; large or rapid increases in raw material costs or substantial decreases in their availability; economic, political and other risks associated with international sales and operations; the risk of non-compliance with U.S. and foreign laws and regulations, including the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and other similar laws; pending asbestos and silica personal injury lawsuits; and, the potential loss of key customers. The foregoing factors should not be construed as exhaustive.

The forward-looking statements reflect the current views and assumptions of management with respect to future events. The Company does not undertake, and hereby disclaims, any duty to update these forward-looking statements, even though its situation and circumstances may change in the future. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. The inclusion of any statement in this report does not constitute an admission by the Company or any other person that the events or circumstances described in such statement are material.
